Kule Ukrainian Folklore Graduate Travel Bursary

Endowed by: Peter and Doris Kule

Value: Variable

Eligibility: Awarded annually to graduate students registered in Ukrainian Folklore in the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies to support travel to participate in a conference, conduct fieldwork, or archival research relevant to their program of studies. Part-time students are eligible for the award.

Application: Students must complete an application form (supplied below), and write a cover letter to the Award Committee of the Peter and Doris Kule Centre for Ukrainian and Canadian Folklore in the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies, explaining the goals of the trip plus providing financial information. Complete applications and supporting documents must be submitted by October 25 or April 25.

Administrative responsibility: Director, Peter and Doris Kule Centre of Ukrainian and Canadian Folklore.

Source of funds: Endowment established – signed Statement of Trust received. Additional funds may be contributed in any given year from other eligible endowments in the Kule Centre at the discretion of the Director. Plans are to dedicate an average of approximately $4,000 per year to this bursary in the short term, depending on need. Award recipient(s) normally will be selected October 31 and April 30.

Selection Committee:

The Graduate Award Committee of the Kule Centre consists of: 1) occupant of the Huculak Chair in Ukrainian Culture and Ethnography, 2) occupant of the Kule Chair in Ukrainian Ethnography, and 3) Graduate Associate Chair of the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies or designate.

Selection criteria:

- demonstration of financial need

Secondary criteria:

- demonstrated efforts to secure other funding
- high significance of the proposed trip to research program
- lower priority if student has received previous funding through this program for the same degree program
